

Code of Conduct Policy

1. Purpose

The Code of Conduct defines the ethical standards, professional behavior, and responsibilities expected of all employees to ensure a respectful, lawful, and productive workplace.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, consultants, contractors, and representatives of the organization while performing their duties or representing the company.

3. Professional Behavior

Employees are expected to: - Act with integrity, honesty, and fairness at all times. - Treat colleagues, customers, and partners with respect and dignity. - Maintain a professional work environment free from harassment, discrimination, or intimidation.

4. Compliance with Laws and Company Policies

Employees must comply with: - All applicable local, national, and international laws and regulations. - All internal company policies, procedures, and guidelines.

5. Confidentiality and Data Protection

- Employees must safeguard confidential company, client, and employee information.
- Unauthorized disclosure, misuse, or access to confidential data is strictly prohibited.

6. Conflict of Interest

Employees must avoid situations where personal interests conflict, or appear to conflict, with the interests of the organization. Any potential conflict must be disclosed to management or HR.

7. Use of Company Assets

Company assets, including systems, equipment, data, and intellectual property, must be used responsibly and strictly for authorized business purposes.

8. Disciplinary Action

Violation of this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, including warnings, suspension, or termination of employment, depending on the severity of the violation.

9. Acknowledgement

All employees are required to read, understand, and acknowledge compliance with this policy as a condition of employment.

Effective Date: As communicated by HR

Policy Owner: Human Resources Department