

Leave Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to define the types of leave available to employees and the rules governing the application, approval, and utilization of leave, ensuring work-life balance while maintaining business continuity.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time employees of the organization. Contractual or temporary employees may be governed by the terms of their respective agreements.

3. Types of Leave

3.1 Casual Leave (CL)

Casual Leave may be availed for short-term personal needs. Employees are encouraged to apply in advance wherever possible.

3.2 Sick Leave (SL)

Sick Leave may be availed in case of illness or medical emergencies. A medical certificate may be required for sick leave exceeding two consecutive working days.

3.3 Earned / Privilege Leave (EL/PL)

Earned Leave is accrued based on days worked and may be used for planned long absences. Accumulation and carry-forward limits are defined by the organization.

3.4 Public Holidays

The organization observes a list of declared public holidays each calendar year as notified by HR.

4. Leave Accrual and Carry Forward

- Leave accrual is calculated on a monthly basis.
- Earned Leave may be carried forward up to the maximum limit defined by HR.
- Casual Leave and Sick Leave typically lapse at the end of the calendar year unless otherwise specified.

5. Leave Application and Approval

- Leave requests must be submitted through the designated HR system or defined process.
- Leave approval is subject to reporting manager discretion and business requirements.
- Unauthorized absence may result in disciplinary action.

6. Leave During Notice Period

Leave during the notice period is generally discouraged and requires explicit approval from the reporting manager and HR.

7. Policy Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved by HR and management in writing.

Effective Date: As communicated by HR

Policy Owner: Human Resources Department